Local Doctor in Auto Accident

Dr. Foster E. Bennett, 157 Toyonal and Yoshio Nakatani of Martinez were involved in an automobile accident in the center of the Orinda Crossroads interchange project Wednesday evening, according to the California State Highway Patrol.

The collision, in which no one was injured, happened at 7:50 p. m., officers said. The left front fender of Nakatani's car was damaged and the right front fender of Dr. Bennett's car was crumpled.

Withdraw Offer For Pine Grove

A $10,000 deposit on 10 acres of Pine Grove land was withdrawn last Friday by Miss Esther Hollst of San Francisco, who had made the deposit on behalf of an undisclosed group calling itself "Committee for Orinda Center."

That afternoon the EBMUD board turned down the offer because, according to President Louis J. Breuner, the offer was contingent on rezoning and was "as such not acceptable to board policy."

'Player of the Week' Awards Planned for Prep Grid Stars

A "Player of the Week" award will be presented to the top high school football player in Central Contra County each week during the season which gets under way today.

For the first time, outstanding prep stars—tackles, guards, backs, ends and the rest—will be honored for their performance on the fields of our local high schools.

THE PROGRAM is sponsored by The SUN and Grodins of California. Participating schools will include Acalanes, Las Lomas, Pleasant Hill, Mt. Diablo and San Ramon.

Coaches from these schools will nominate players they believe should receive the weekly awards after every Friday night game. One "Player of the Week" will be chosen.

THEN, THE TOP prep gridder each week will be announced in The SUN. Winners will receive an engraved miniature gold football and a merchandise award from Grodins which is located at 1447 Broadway in Walnut Creek.

The program begins this week. Watch for the first 1954 "Player of the Week." He will be announced Friday, September 24.

Central Contra Costa high schools have produced a number of outstanding athletes, among them Tom Kramer, former Mt. Diablo star who is scheduled to fill the fullback spot on the 1954 University of California squad which opens the season against Oklahoma tomorrow in Berkeley.

THEN THERE'S the great Norm Van Brocklin, top-flight quarterback for the Los Angeles Rams, who began his football career at Acalanes High School.

Another former local prep football star is Don Ferrarese, the Oakland Acorn pitcher who is reportedly on his way to the big leagues. Don was an ace quarterback at Acalanes in his high school days.

The "Player of the Week" program is designed to give recognition and honor to this season's high school stars who may well follow in the footsteps of Van Brocklin, Kramer and Ferrarese.

2 Firms Express Interest in Idea Of Rail Purchase

Interest was expressed yesterday by Utah Construction Company and the Dollar Industries in the proposal of The SUN that these firms, along with the Rheem interests, consider purchase of the Sacramento Northern Railroad so as to convert the line to rapid transit commute service for Central Contra Costa County.

However, Donald L. Rheem, although recognizing the serious transportation problem for Central Contra Costa County commuters, rejected the idea as practically "out of the question."

Utah Construction Company's president and general manager, Allen D. Christiansan, indicated that his company might consider such a move if the people of this area assist in the financing.

Robert P. Seeley, secretary to R. Stanley Dollar, president of the Robert Dollar Company, stated that The SUN's suggestion had been forwarded to Dollar in New York.

DOLLAR RETURNED to New York from Europe Tuesday and is expected back in San Francisco in about two weeks, Seeley said.

THE SUN PROPOSED last week that Utah Construction Company, the Rheem interests and the Dollar Industries "sit down together in the very near future and see if arrangements can be made to purchase Sacramento Northern.

In an editorial, this newspaper pointed out that such purchase "would be to the direct advantage" of the three firms, since "the tracks go through Utah Construction property, into Rheem land and on into Saranap" Extensive Dollar property is in the Saranap-Walnut Creek area.

The SUN's suggestion was made in view of clear indications that Western Pacific Railroad still intends to "junk" some 15 miles of Sacramento-Northern tracks from 40th Street and Shafter Avenue, Oakland, to West Lafayette station.

HARRY A. MITCHELL and R. G. Guggenhime, trustees in bankruptcy for Sacramento Northern, have stated they intend to file application with the Interstate Commerce Commissiion in the ntxt couple of months for permission to abandon this trackage.

After granting of the application, the property would be sold to the highest bidder. Mitchell says the successful bidder will probably be Western Pacific, owner of outstanding stock and bonds of Sacramento Northern.

CHRISTIANSON, after conferring with other Utah Construction Company officials, said:

"Transportation is an acute problem for the Moraga, Walnut Creek, Lafayette and contiguous areas. It must be solved.

"It would appear that the problem is primarily one for the people of the area to solve, either directly or through appropriate public bodies.

"The commuters in the area can make or break a venture of this kind by their patronage or lack of patronage.

"IF THE PEOPLE in the area, particularly the commuters, would demonstrate that they are sufficiently interested in the problem to assist in the financing, it might well encourage other interests to cooperate.

"The feasibility and practicability of the program advocated by The SUN could be demonstrated through:

"1. A thorough survey and study of the cost and practicability of the operation, which could readily determine the cost of new, modern equipment, rehabilitation of the Sacramento Northern plant and other essential details.

"2. THE OPENING OF a public subscription campaign to determine the amount of money that could be raised locally — (a) for the cost of the preliminray survey and (b) for investment in stock and bonds if a corporate entity was established to handle the problem.

"3. The proportion of the cost which would be underwritten by the public and the support that the commuters pledge would permit other interests in the area who are interested in solving the problem to determine the amount of support that the project would receive financially and through patronage, and therefore demonstrate essential support that should not be made the responsibility of the using people in the area.

"It is suggested that the idea of The SUN may well be expanded to include the conduct of a campaign on a pledge basis."

RHEEM SAID:

"I think the transportation problem for Moraga, Lafayette, Walnut Creek and surrounding areas is a problem for the county and state, not the Dollar interests, the Utah Construction Company or myself.

"The best way to overcome congestion and confusiion for the commuters in this territory is the construction of the proposed Shepherd Canyon Tunnel.

"To revive the old Sacramento Northern rail transportation would be extremely costly and, speaking for myself, at least, to finance such a project would be out of the question."

Special Business Zone Hearing Held; Another Confab Scheduled for Monday

Efforts to establish a Special Business District for some 25 acres on the west side of San Pablo Dam Road, between the Village and the Crossroads, were highlighted by two developments this week:

1. An initial hearing was held by the County Planning Commission Wednesday night on possible revision of the Special Business District Ordinance, and a second hearing was scheduled for September 29.

2. A conference was held Monday morning at the commission offices in Martinez, and a second conference was scheduled for 9:30 a.m. next Monday.

The present ordinance requires that a Special Business District must be at least 20 acres in size and must be owned by one owner.

AMENDMENT SUGGESTED Wednesday night by County Director of Planning Thomas Heaton and Principal County Planner H. Russell Griffith was that an aggregate of several parcels, owned by different owners, be permitted in a total area of not less than 20 acres.

This suggestion was approved by Commissioner Arthur Young. When G. F. McCormick, commission secretary, asked if anyone else had anything to say on the matter, Chairman James Hupp of the Orinda Association's Orinda Planning Committee asked that consideration be given to the association's position in favor of a well-planned shopping district.

Hupp called attention to the hearings recently held regarding a proposed controlled manufacturing district at Pacheco and urged that similar types of restrictions be placed in a new Special Business District Ordinance.

YOUNG STATED that the general idea on restrictions in a Special Business District should be set forth in the preamble to the ordinance.

Deputy District Attorney Matthew Walker explained that for a controlled manufacturing district the requirements are specifically stated in ordinance wording, whereas in a Special Business District the restrictions are covered by diagrammatic layout.

Walker suggested a second hearing for September 29, and that date was scheduled by the commission.

IN ANOTHER MOVE, the commission signed the findings of the technical staff for denial of Dr. W. F. Thomas' application for Retail Business rezoning of Lot 42 at the souhteast corner of Moraga Highway and Southwood Drive.

Griffith suggested that this matter be held up until the East Bay Municipal Utility District's rezoning application and the Special Business District revision were disposed of, so that all could go before the Board of Supervisors at the same time.

However, Joseph Creighton, as attorney for Orindans, Inc., pointed out that the Thomas matter had been decided and urged that there be no delay. The commission complied with his request.

AT MONDAY MORNING'S conference, owners of the various parcels recently purchased from EBMUD discussed their plans with Heaton, Griffith, Associate County Planner Richard Stockwell and with the following:

President Zach Montgomery of the Orinda Association; Hupp and Mitchell Farrar of the Orinda Planning Committee; Mrs. T. D. Sanford, secretary of the association's Civic Affairs Committee; Horace Breed, representing the Orinda Chamber of Commerce; Phil Wagner, EBMUD properties division manager, and John B. Reilley of the EBMUD legal staff.

Building Program Reshuffled as Orinda Bid is Almost $50,000 Over Estimate

Harsh financial reality forced Acalanes High School District Trustees to curtail and postpone their building program Monday night as the lowest bid for construction of Miramonte High School came in almost $50,000 over estimate.

Pacific Coast Builders of San Francisco was awarded the contract to build the first unit of the new high school to serve Orinda and Moraga for $559,100, the lowest of five bids which ranged to as high as $612,500.

TRUSTEES ALSO awarded a contract for a long-held-in-abeyance music room at Acalanes to Ed W. Eoff Company of Richmond on a bid of $59,480, low among four submitted.

Scrapped, at least temporarily, were plans for additional bleachers at Acalanes; landscaping, additional parking facilities and bleachers at Las Lomas, and interior finishing of the gymnasium and a bus shelter and parking area at Miramonte.

Kump Associates, district architects, were also directed to meet with Pacific Coast Builders to discuss the elimination of expendable features of the new school.

Trustees met yesterday after SUN press time to consider the findings of the architect and to execute any change orders on the contract that might reduce the cost of Miramonte.

MONDAY NIGHT, bids were also opened for a bus area at Miramonte and interior finishing of the gymnasium to include acoustical treatment and a fully equipped stage.

Both were rejected, but the architect was instructed to prepare change orders for the Pacific Coast contract to provide acoustical treatment and a bare stage platform for the gymnasium.

Bids were awarded only after more than an hour' discussion of funds and priorities of the different projects of the district.

BUSINESS MANAGER Ross Reagan told trustees the capital outlay budget contained $704,400 which included $5000 for Acalanes, $76,400 for Las Lomas and $572,000 for Miramonte, leaving a $51,000 surplus tentatively earmarked for the Acalanes music building.

The Miramonte cost was based on an architect's estimate of $511,000 for construction with the rest for architects' and other fees, he said.

However, on the basis of the low bid received, the new high school would cost about $620,000, meaning a cut in the building program is necessary to bring it in line with the budget, he pointed out.

HE ALSO TOLD the board that all except $22,000 in the Las Lomas "fund" had been spent. Superintendent Neil Parsons recommended the music building be given priority after the new high school.

Trustees then accepted the two low bids, which cut all additional building out of the year's program and will require the use of reserve funds.

To open next fall with a freshman class, the first unit of Miramonte will include nine classrooms, the largest gymnasium in the district, an office, a track and athletic field and paved areas.

The Acalanes music building will include a large band room, a choral room, practice rooms, an office, a music library, storage space and a connecting corridor.

Architect's representatives explained their Miramonte estimate was probably low because of higher costs than expected generally and particularly in construction of the gymnasium and utilities installation.

IN OTHER ACTION, the board:

1. Granted a non-exclusive easement to the county over a small area in the northeast corner of the Miramonte site to be used for drainage purposes.

2. Adopted a course of study and a list of textbooks for the year, appointing Trustee Alice McBride to review them.

3. Heard Trustees William Freeman and Ralph Hall report on a meeting with Utah Construction Company regarding a high school site in Moraga. The company suggested one to adjoin a new elementary school not far from the Burton School.

4. DISCUSSED HIRING Stanford University Educational consultants to prepare a report on district needs and problems, but took no action.

5. Approved the hiring of an additional teacher for Acalanes High School due to an increase in enrollment of 38 pupils over estimate.

6. Approved the hiring of a new clerk at Las Lomas.

7. Accepted the construction of the Las Lomas High swimming pool.

8. Tabled a suggestion that the pay for adult education teachers be raised above $3.50 per hour after opinions against the recommendation were expressed.

9. Appointed Abbott A. Hanks engineering company to act as testing laboratory for Miramonte construction.

Propose Pine Grove Purchase by Public

A non-profit corporation, to be known as The Orinda Foundation, was recommended yesterday as a means of purchasing the Pine Grove property from the East Bay Municipal Utility District for use as community center land.

In a letter to The SUN, Mrs. Mitchell Farrar, an Orinda resident and chairman of the Women's Planning League of Contra Costa County, said:

"On April 6 Jack Cummings, chairman of the Board of Supervisors, publicly promised the people of Orinda a master plan in six months. Less than three weeks remain until Mr. Cummings will be expected to make good his promise.

"AT THAT TIME, the people of Orinda could fittingly launch the Orinda Foundation and public hearings on the master plan should generate enthusiasm which ought to bring forth the financial support necessary to at last get under way on actual realization of goals so long held by residents of this community.

"Present unsuitable Community Center land could be used as a down payment on whatever center location is delineated in the master plan."

Mrs. Farrar suggested that the corporation would provide a means through which funds can be contributed by public-spirited individuals toward the cultural and recreational facilities the community "now needs or will need in the future."

SHE SUGGESTED THAT it be designed to meet requirements of the U. S. Department of Internal Revenue which would qualify it for tax exempt status, enabling citizens to deduct from their income tax gifts to the foundation.

Mrs. Farrar said that the Violich Report shows the Pine Grove area as ideal for use by community facilities. "Properly developed and landscaped, a community center at this spot would provide a beautiful 'front door' for Orinda," she added.

STRESSING THE PRACTICAL side of the suggestion, she said, "With Orinda's growing interest in the attainment of more desirable community center property than that presently held by the Orinda Association and with widespread feeling that a community hall or theater, a library, and some recreational facilities are urgently needed, such a foundation looms as one practical answer to the problems of achieving these community goals."

Local Crusade Unit Hears Mott Speak

William Penn Mott Jr., public relations chairman, and Sol Gilberg, training chairman, speaking recently to the Diablo Valley Advisory Board of the United Crusade, said, "Give to your favorite welfare or health organization through the United Crusade, not to the United Crusade."

"The United Crusade is only a distributing agency for collected funds. With the increasing population in this area the needs and responsibilities are increasing, and by giving through the United Crusade you will be giving to one drive instaed of to many," they said.

The meeting was held at Acalanes High School Library as a speakers' briefing conference, according to Mrs. Leonard H. Ford, chairman of the evening, assisted by Thomas Coll of Concord and Erick Emery of Martinez.

Attending from Diablo Valley were: Mrs. John Gompertz; Jack Pedder; Betsy FitzGerald Rahn; Frank W. Ladd; Fitch Robertson, community fund chairman; Charles Gable, commerce and industry chairman, and Kathryn Pell, United Crusade staff member.

Confab on CD In Schools to Open Monday

Major-General William M. Robertson, director of State Civil Defense, will be the principal speaker at the Disaster Preparedness in the Schools Conference, which takes place at the Enean Theater, Concord, Monday.

George K. Burton, Assistant Director of County Civil Defense, in announcing the General's appearance at the conference, stated that speakers prominent in their field will take part in the all-day session.

Designed to acquaint school administrators and personnel with the problems confronting them in case of disaster, either natural or warborne, those attending will return to their schools and train others in their responsibilities toward the children.

"We urge all PTA units to take advantage of the conference and send representatives," said Mrs. Frank Aiman of Walnut Creek and John Motel of Richmond, co-chairmen for civil defense, 32nd District, CCPTA.

Condon, Baldwin in Word Battle as Final Drive for Congressional Post Is Started

At a Democratic rally in Richmond, Condon launched his campaign for re-election last Thursday with the statement that the main issue of the campaign is "whether or not I have served my constituency well."

BALDWIN, the Republican nominee, came right back at a press conference Tuesday at his Richmond headquarters, pointing to Condon's having been barred from a 1953 atom bomb test as a security risk, haveing been "mentioned by a witness before the Un-American Activities Committee as having attended a closed communist meeting" and having been repudiated by the Democratic National Committee Chairman.

"Mr. Condon's voting record in the 1954 session of Congress is conclusive evidence that he still has the same leanings toward communism," Baldwin charged.

Earlier Condon had said, "What I am and what I stand for and what I have done is a matter of public record for all to see and for all to debate."

"I LIKE OUR Constitution and our Bill of Rights and I will fight to preserve these great instruments of democracy. I will not be stampeded, nor will I sit idly by while evil men sit in their counting houses plotting a police state for America," he said.

Baldwin listed nine measures which came before the 1954 session of the House of Representatives pertaining to the strengthening of internal security measures against communist infiltration and said, "Mr. Condon was the only member of the entire California Congressional delegation of 30 members who never once voted in favor of these measures."

Quoting the Congressional Quarterly as his source, Baldwin said, "Every other member of the Congressional delegation had three or more favorable votes on these nine roll calls. Some had favorable votes on all nine measures."

HE SAID CONDON voted against the wire tapping bill and against a bill providing for determination by the courts whether witnesses should be granted immunity when appearing before Congressional investigating committees, courts and Grand Jury proceedings.

He also said Condon had the following record on seven other bills:

1. Voted "present" on a bill authorizing $275,000 for the House Un-American Activities Committee.
2. Vote "not recorded" on separate resolutions to cite for contempt Bernhard Deutch and Bolza Baxter for refusing to answer questions before the House Un-American Activities Committee.
3. Vote "not recorded" on bills to revise and extend the laws related to espionage and sabotage and to make peacetime spying punishable by death.
4. Vote "not recorded" on bill to permit determination of communist-infiltrated organizations by the Subversive Activities Control Board, but provide individual membership in the party is not a felony.
5. Vote "not recorded" on motion to direct the House conferees to agree to the Senate amendments which would make membership in the Communist Party a felony.
6. Vote "not recorded" on agreement to conference report on the preceding bill which was amended to provide that members of the Communist Party or other organizations aimed at overthrowing the government shall be subject to all the provisions and penalties applicable to "communist action" organizations in the Internal Security Act of 1950.

BALDWIN SAID Condon had been reported seen on the floor of the house while two of the bills were voted on and, in the case of a third, had been present earlier the same day to vote on another measure.

"The foregoing is a frightening and shocking voting record. Apparently our Congresman is more interested in protecting the communists in the United States than he is in protecting the citizens of the United States from communist infiltration," Baldwin said.

He also said that Condon was present to vote on another the same day, but was "not recorded" when an amendment to the Mutual Security Authorization Bill providing that no funds be authorized in the bill on behalf of governments committed by treaty to maintain communist rule over any defined area in Asia.

"MR. CONDON'S position on these 10 measures dealing with communism proves beyond any doubt that he has not changed his ways and that his thinking and actions continue to be that of a communist sympathizer," Baldwin concluded.

In his opening campaign speech last Thursday Condon called for "a return to normalcy in our domestic and foreign relations," saying, "Traditional American civil liberties that have contributed to our nation's greatness and served as a model for other nations are being choked to death."

Condon charged that "there is no realistic foreign policy today guiding our affairs. We have many policies, and what the policies are depends upon whether it is Dulles, Nixon or Knowland who is speaking, and also upon where they are speaking."

Turning from foreign policy, Condon mentioned "some of the things I have been able to accomplish in my first term in Congress."

"I KEPT MY WORD with the parents of this community by working for and winning increased federal aid for our schools. We were able to secure one million two hundred thousand dollars more than a committee allocated for us."

"We helped secure, with the aid of city leaders and Senator Kuchel, two million dollars for the improvement of the vital Richmond Harbor We have a similar bill for the Antioch harbor. We secured two million dollars for the development of the Walnut Creek Watershed and forty-eight million dollars for the development of the Monticello Dam in Solano County."

"These expenditures will strengthen the economy of our district and make it more competitive with other communities. Out of these appropriations will come a better future for all of our people, Condon concluded.

"I say this not in a partisan sense at all, but as one who sadly observes that a great nation has reached the stage on the internal scene where it has lost the ability to wage peace. The alternative is war and total destruction of civilization."

"I SAY NOW the minutes are ticking away and before the bomb goes off let's stay out of military adventures and strengthen the United Nations. Let's not pour money down the drain, but let's expand opportunities for trade."

"Peace and trade can be good business for all America and particularly for the West Coast. And while we explore avenues of peace and trade through negotiation, I will continue to vote to keep our military defenses efficient and strong."

"Peace," the Congressman said, "is not a dirty word. It is a clean, decent, honorable word, and it doesn't mean appeasement, sellout, or anything like that. It means life and hope in a world where nations have decided that it is better to coexist than not to exist at all."

Dinner Planned to Start Program To Organize New Scout Troops Here

Some 50 men who are interested in providing worthwhile activities for boys of the Diablo Valley held two training sessions on recent Thursday evenings in preparation for a "Together Dinner" for organiing 20 or more Boy Scout troops.

This information was released today by Marvin A. Moler, Pleasant Hill, chairman of Meridian District Organiation and Extension Committee.

Youmans, Pleasant Hill, district executive; Dick Ross, Walnut Creek, assistant district executive, sistant Council reliminaryn,ETAOIN and Charles Warner, El Cerrito, assistant council executive.

"'Together We Organize' will be our theme," Moler declared. "We are inviting representatives from churches, parent-teacher groups, improvement associations, patriotic and service clubs to attend a dinner September 27 at Acalanes High School, for the purpose of giving information and help in setting up schedules to complete the organization of their own troops."

Chairman of the "Together Dinner" will be Ian McLaughlin, Walnut Creek. McLaughlin is a member of the Mt. Diablo Council Executive Board and former district chairman of the area.

Cooperating to form organizing teams are approximately 50 men from the communities of Orinda, Lafayette, Walnut Creek, Danville and Pleasant Hill.

"At present, our district has 29 troops," Moler explained. "We expect to invite 22 potential sponsors to our 'Together Dinner'. If each one should see fit to organize a troop, we could just about take care of the tremendous flood of Scout-age boys, caused by population growth and graduating Cub Scouts during the past year," he said.

Christian Science

How we may prove and experience man's God-given dominion over material bondage of all kinds —sin, disease and limitation — will be brought out at services Sunday at Churches of Christ, Scientist, 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek, and 42 Orinda Highway, Orinda. Subject of the Lesson-Sermon is "Matter."

The spiritual heritage of freedom which belongs to man is set forth in the following selection from the Bible (Galatians 4:6,7): "And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father. Wherethou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ."

The following passage will be among those read from "Science and Health with Key to Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (223:3): "Sooner or later we shall learn that the fetters of man's finite capacity are forged by the illusion that he lives in body instead of in Soul, in matter instead of in Spirit."

Go to Church Sunday

Community

Registration in the Sunday School of the Orinda Community Church will continue Sunday at 9:30 a.m. with a chapel service at 9:30 for adults and young people and at 10 a.m. for junior age under Floyd Hornibrook.

Organist for these services is Marena Hewitt. Instructors in the youth department are Elbert Wayne, grade seven; Ray Welles, grade eight; Robert Brown, high school freshmen and sophomores; R. O. Monosmith, high school juniors and seniors.

The first two addresses will be given Sunday to the adult department by Dr. Hugh Vernon White, professor of Christian theology at the Pacific School of Relgion. Dr White is internationally known as an authority on Christian thought and missions.

At 11 a. m, in the public worship service Rev. Fred R. Morrow will deliver the second of two sermons on "Getting the Most Out of Going to Church." The chapel choir is directed by Margaret Popovich in Tkach's "To Thee We Sing." A Largo of Gluck, "Consolation" by Mendelssohn and "Kol Nidrei" by Bruch are the numbers to be played on the memorial organ by Daniel Popovich.

Junior high age young people gather for fellowship and a program of discussion and worship at 5:30 p.m. under Ray Welles' leadership, and at 6:45 p.m. following a short recreation period, members of the high school Pilgrim Fellowship have arranged for a panel of laymen led by R. O. Monosmith, state 4-H leader, on "The Christian Faith and My Job."

Holly Stern is president. She states that the group is open to all young people of high school age.

Lutheran

The Rev. Harry Durkee, native of Abercombie, North Dakota, and now pastor of the St. James Lutheran Church, Richmond, will be the liturgist and speaker this Sunday at the 8 and 11 o'clock services and the 9:30 and 10 o'clock Sunday School services at the Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church.

The Rev. Edward R. Andersen, regular pastor of this church, has been invited to speak to the people of the St. James Lutheran Church with special emphasis on the meeting of the World Council of Churches which he recently attended in Evanston, Illinois.

Next Friday evening will be Mission Night at the church under the sponsorship of the Afternoon and Evening Women's Guilds, The Couples Club, the Luther League and the Sunday School. A dinner will be served starting at 6:30 p.m. which will be followed by a program, movies, slides and planned fellowship for all.

Sunday, September 26, will be Rally Sunday for the Sunday School at which time the new program of classes for the fall will begin. All of the children who expect to attend Sunday School regularly are expected to be present so the new classes can be formed.

People of the community are invited to come to this church to worship in order that they can better serve their fellows.

Come to worship, depart to serve.

Church to Hold Mission Night

The Ladies Guild of the Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church will hold a Mission Night next Friday to acquaint everyone with the Rocky Boy Mission of Montana.

Dinner will be served from 6:15 to 7:15 p.m. and will be followed by a program in the true Indian fashion with the children of the Sunday School coming as Indians to help portray the life at Rocky Boy Mission.

There will be slides from the Mission and a panel of questions and answers by the Luther Leaguers. First hand information will be given by Pastor Edward Andersen, who visited the mission this summer.

The people at the mission earn money for themselves by doing beadwork, some of which will be on display.

An evening of fun is promised.

CHECK THOSE LIGHTS

When driving at night be sure those rear lights are burning, advises the National Automobile Club. Blinded by glare of oncoming headlights, drivers find it difficult to see a car ahead unless the warning red lights are burning brightly.

Shhh . . .
A very special deal . . .

By GINNY SIMPSON

Bill is always telling secrets, now it's my turn. While he's away (and feeling much better, thank you), we have been making a few sharp buys. We want all our friends to revive those tired windows — and save $$$ at the same time. Here's the big, big deal:

Boucle Drapery Fabric

100 INCHES WIDE

$5.45 per yard

This regularly sells for $7.95. Of course, the wonderful part is that it is, to repeat, 100 inches wide instead of the usual 45 or 48 inches. And imagine, it has no seams.

Get out your pencil — 100 inches equals better than 2 widths. So divide 2 into $5.45 and this costs you less than $2.95 a width.

It comes in pink ice, pampus green, beige parchment, nutmeg, grey, white and gold.

Hurry before Bill gets back and raises the price.

Cordially,
Ginny

Leslie C. Dawe — suburban ranch homes in Hacienda Nogales, Lafayette. Ted Barcelon is sales representative.

Walnut Creek Construction Company — new ranch style homes, 3 and 4-bedroom, at Bonita Place, close in back of the Catholic Church and off Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Walnut Creek, and in Lafayette's Glenside district, off St. Mary's Road.

K/R Homes, Inc. — "homes of distinction" built by Newhall-Scott Company at Hedgewood Manor, at Cherry Lane, north of Walnut Creek.

Garry Grover — distinctive homes at Huston Road off Pleasant Hill Road, southwest of Geary Road, in Pleasant Hill, and at Castle Rock, along Oak Grove south of North Gate Road, northeast of Walnut Creek.

In addition, there is the Contra Costa Parade of Homes at Holbrook Heights subdivision in Concord, where a number of area building firms are represented. The Parade of Homes opened last Sunday and will continue through September 26.

You Can Install This Sprinkler

Getting tired of dragging a hose around the lawn? Wish you had an automatic sprinkling system for the yard and flower beds? Then here is a National Home Week idea.

A new sub-surface "install-it-yourself" lawn sprinkling system using a flexible plastic pipe has just been announced.

Designed primarily for home use, the pipe is so light that a man can easily carry a roll 400 feet long.

BECAUSE THE plastic pipe is not affected by freezing temperatures, installation does not demand that it be buried below the freeze level.

Instead, a homeowner merely lays out the pipe pattern he desires, and digs a trench 4 inches deep, taking about an hour and a half to install the whole system.

THE PIPE is placed in the shallow trench, and spray head units are attached with simple clamps between the pipe sections.

The spray heads, installed so that their tops project only slightly above ground, do not interfere with lawn-mowing. The whole system is put together with a screw driver; once it is installed, it stays permanently.

It costs you at least $2.50 extra when you go through the tunnel to shop. Save at home

Plastic Panels Gain Popularity

Modern homes, where the emphasis is on open floor plans, light colors and easy maintenance, are making increased use of translucent paneling for room dividers and "floating" partitions, according to June Cabot, home arts consultant.

Because it's made of plastic reinforced with fiber glass, pastel-colored corrulux is extremely strong, easily cleaned and break-resistant.

Drive carefully through residential streets and save a child's life.

Economy in Air-Conditioned Homes Stressed by Builders

Home builders are placing increased emphasis on complete insulation to assure low-cost heating and cooling operation.

Middle-income families are intensely interested in air conditioned new homes such as some of those being shown during National Home Week, but only after they are assured that economical operation is possible.

ACCORDING TO Gordon W. Orbesen, refrigeration and air-conditioning specialist, today's home buyers are "very budget-minded and inclined, therefore, to be apprehensive about reports of heavy-tonnage equipment and large electric bills required to cool many houses.

"They should realize that in virtually every case these reports are true only of home where no attention was paid to good insulating practice," he says.

REALISTIC BUILDERS, Orbesen says, are now taking measures to block every possible avenue of heat gain and loss.

Their plans call for double-pane insulating glass, often with heat-resistant outer panes; complete insulation of the air conditioner itself and the ducts which distribute cool air; insulation of both roof and walls; adequate overhangs to protect windows from direct sun rays except in winter months, and proper orientation of the building.

Callers Revealed By Door Mirror

A small, transparent mirror in the front door enables the housewife to be selective about answering calls.

This type of mirror permits a clear view from the inside while the visitor sees only his mirrored reflection in the glass.

Kitchen Trend: Toward Colors

The trend toward color and away from antiseptic white in modern kitchens has been advanced by the use of colored structural glass.

One such glass, vitrolite, is produced in 11 opaque colors for easily cleaned wainscoting, work counters, splash panels and table tops.

Spotlight Is on Homes Throughout the Entire Area

Newest idea in home display and merchandising made its debut in the Bay Area Sunday with the opening of the Contra Costa Parade of Homes at Holbrook Heights Subdivision in Concord.

It is now open to the public from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. daily, admission free, through Sunday, September 26.

Sponsors of the Parade are the Associated Home Builders of the Greater East Bay and the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County. John I. Hennessy, executive vice president of the Associated Home Builders, is chairman, assisted by Ronald L. Pardini, the association's field representative.

THE HOLBROOK HEIGHTS event offers a square block of homes, with each residence built by a different construction firm. Hennessy states:

"It is virtually a supermarket of new homes. For the first time, home buyers and potential home owners can see a wide variety of homes in just one stop.'

"Until this time, interested families would have had to visit many scattered areas in the county to select the home of their choice."

BUILDING FIRMS represented are:

Roth and Adams, Inc., Walnut Creek; Robert Burgess, Walnut Creek; Garry Grover, Lafayette; Kermit Lincoln, Lafayette; Wilkie Construction Company, Lafayette; S. C. Lawrence Company, Concord; Heraty and Gannon, Concord; Earl W. Smith, Inc., El Cerrito; Scott W. Bonds, El Cerrito; Lockwood Construction, Inc., Oakland; Oliver Rousseau, San Francisco.

EACH OF THE HOMES is finished in every detail and ready for occupancy. All exteriors were color-planned by T. H. DeLap Jr. of Oakland, to create an eye-pleasing neighborhood while still retaining distinct individuality of each home.

This harmonious pattern is carried to completion through a landscaping design planned by Robert M. Babcock, C. A. L. A., Oakland landscape architect.

Individuality of each residence is further enhanced by the wide variety of backyard planning. Rear yard treatments range from simple gardens to elaborate patios with swimming pools, raised flower beds and barbecue pits.

THE DISTINCTIVE NOTE is again emphasized in the furnishing and interior color planning of each home.

Furniture houses from all sections of the county are represented and the furnishing plans embrace every mode of life from the informal, represented in the simplicity of modern furniture, through provincial styles to the severely formal furnishings.

There is no fee for parking. Refreshment stands and sanitary facilities have been provided for visitors.

Contractors to Hear Realty Commissioner

California State Real Estate Commissioner D. D. Watson is to address the membership of the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County, Inc., at a dinner meeting Tuesday, it was announced today by Kermit L. Lincoln, Lafayette, president.

The meeting is to be held at 7 p.m. at the Orinda Willows, Lincoln stated.

Watson will discuss the recent regulation regarding the escrowing of deposit monies and its applicability to the home building industry.

"Through such first hand information we feel that our membership can gain greatly in its perspective of future conditions," Lincoln stated.

Planning Boards In New Location

The County Planning Commission and the Board of Zoning Adjustments started meeting this week in the new Administration Building at Pine and Escobar Streets, Martinez.

The two planning boards formerly met in the Board of Supervisors meeting room in the Hall of Records. The new meeting place has approximately the same seating capacity.

National Planner Approves of County

Miss Harlean James, nationally known planner, commented recently that Contra Costa County planning is being directed by "one of the most progressive groups in the country."

She is a member of President Eisenhower's Conference on Home Building and Home Ownership."

She made a professional check of county planning and was taken on a tour of Eastern Contra Costa County by Thomas Heaton, director of planning, and Mortimer B. Veal, a member of the Planning Commission.

Bassoon Player Needed Pronto!

Does anyone know of a bassoon player? If so, will he ask the bassoon player to report to the library of Acalanes High School Tuesday evening at 7:30?

That is the date of the opening rehearsal of one section of the Contra Costa Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Oscar Busch.

Old and new players of stringed and wind instruments will be welcomed and put to work.

Another section of the orchestra under the direction of Allen Scholl will also begin work that same evening at 7:30 in Room 1, Building A of East Contra Costa Junior College at Pacheco, on Golf Links Road off State Highway 21.

Present plans for the entire orchestra call for a concert to be given early in December with the following numbers scheduled: "Peter and the Wolf," by Prokofieff; the Greig "Piano Concerto," "Ballet Music from Faust" and perhaps Schubert's "Fifth Symphony."

Local State Fair Winners Listed

Contra Costa won a third place award for Andora cling peaches in judging at the State Fair in Sacramento, it was announced this week.

Two Walnut Creek 4-H Club members won prizes in judging of Swiss cattle.

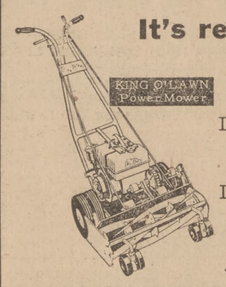

They are Lois Jean Raymond, who won first for her female junior calf, and Leland R. Raymond, who won first for his female, three years and under four.

Now's Time to Buy Tulip Bulbs If You Want to Enhance Beauty of Your Garden

By THE GARDENER

A SURE SIGN OF SPRING in any garden is the proud tulip, aloof yet brilliant in color and symmetrical in shape.

Perhaps the haughtiness of the tulip derives from the very special treatment and fuss made over it during the 17th Century in Europe.

During this time a freak tulip was developed from a normal one-color bulb. This freak was feathered or checked with many colors.

Bulb divisions of the freak produced freak tulips, but the seeds from the "broken flowers" produced normal flowers.

Prices for the freak tulips or "breaks" rose fantastically and eventually the market for such tulips collapsed — there being more people who wanted to make quick money selling tulips than those who wanted to buy them to look at.

TODAY, SOME Tulip names date back to the days of Europe's tulip mania — Pride of Haarlem, Boule de Neige, Keizerskroon, General De Wet.

Though the tulip has had a lot of fuss made over it in the past, its culture is not demanding, states the California Association of Nurserymen.

Tulip bulbs should be planted two and one-half times as deep as they are wide — except in warm winter areas, where they should be planted slightly deeper. Warm winter area planting should be done in November but the bulbs may be bought in September or October and stored at a 45 to 50 degree temperature for one month.

If it is necessary to protect from gophers or field mice, the bulbs can be planted in baskets of wire mesh. Tulips are better group-planted 4 to 5 inches apart.

THE SPECIES Tulips are the earliest variety to bloom; they appear in March and early April in varieties of size, form and character, thriving in good sun and good drainage.

They grow in height from 6 to 18 inches, are lily-shaped, star-shaped small, huge, in colors from light yellow to brilliant scarlet.

Early Tulips bloom in March and April and include the single early — large, single flowers on short, 10-16 inch stems, in bright oranges, reds, yellows and whites— and the double early blooming tulip that has double, peony-like flowers growing on 10-12 inch stems in the same range of colors. Early Tulips require a winter frost period and are therefore not recommended for warm regions.

IN THE MIDSEASON range (appearing in April and May) there is the Mendel variety, that has brilliant colors with contrasting borders, and the Triumph, which is a cross, with large single or full double flowers on strong 20-inch stems.

Replanting tulips every year will aid their increase. After you have dug the bulbs up (when the tops of the flowers have dried down), the old roots should be cleaned off. Matured bulbs should be sorted and stored in a dry place.

Fashion in Furniture Has New Freedom

There is a new freedom about the home, a freedom stimulated by wearability of styles and durability of item.

Entertaining hazards to furniture have been greatly reduced. Impenetrable, mar-proof surfaces on case pieces, washable upholstery fabrics and mobility of both case and upholstered pieces make for easy maintenance.

Today's home, efficiently planned and furnished, gives the homemaker a greater amount of time to devote to the interests of her family or to pursuing projects of her own.

DESIGN INGENUITY has reached new and greater proportions.

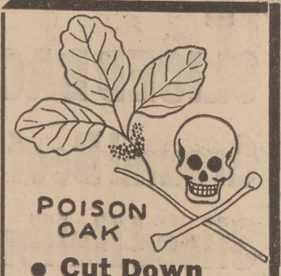

Durability, convenience, functionalism, dual and triple purpose features are available in even the most elaborate and elegant of Traditional styles, as well as in the more contemporary items.

CONTEMPORARY, in an attempt to win over the homemaker who has clung hard and fas to Traditional, has accepted the wisdom of Traditional and softened its stark Modern mood.

In turn, Traditional has subtly subdued its lines to offset the competition presented by Contemporary styles.

Bulbs, Lawns in Latest Checklist Of Garden Advice

Your Garden Checklist for this week offers the following advice:

1. Plant these bulbs now: Ranunculus, anemone, freesia, calla lily.

2. Prepare to plant lawns so they will become established before cold weather.

3. Make sure that the garden is well watered during September.

4. Winter flowering sweet peas can still be planted.

5. Divide and reset crowded perennial plants.

This Tough Glass Safer for Children

Windows facing children's play yards and other rough-treatment areas have less chance of breakage when glazed with toughened plate glass, says H. Creston Doner, a glass authority.

Tuf-flex is three to five times stronger than ordinary plate and, when its breaking-point is reached, it does not shatter, but crumbles into small, harmless crystals.

'Mums' Now Available

"Mums" can be had at nurseries now in a wide variety of well nurtured plants.

They'll be blooming in the next few weeks and obligingly will provide color for you well into winter —whether planted in beds and borders or in pots and containers.

ORINDA COUNTRY CLUB'S Showboat Dance last Saturday night was a gay and gala event. Among the hundreds of guests were Dr. and Mrs. Joe Murphy and Mr. and Mrs. John Sexson. Mrs. Murphy (left) places a flower on the lapel of Dr. Murphy, while Mrs. Sexson similarly decorates her husband.

Elaborate Preview To Open Art Show

A brilliant event to usher in the fall season in the Diablo Valley-East Bay areas will be the invitational preview party for the Sixth Annual Art and Garden Show to be seen this year in especially-built and designed quarters surrounding the Werness Building at 3420 Mt. Diablo Boulevard in Lafayette.

The preview party is scheduled from 7 to 9 p. m. tonight and, although "east of the Tunnel," will draw society and artistic figures from throughout the Bay Area and Diablo Valley.

MEMBERS OF OUTDOOR Art Shows, Inc., education organization devoted to furthering art in the Diablo Valley, their guests, and members of the press will preview the exhibits of painting, sculpture, ceramics, jewelry, textiles and fine printing and bookbinding assembled from nationally-known artists for the show.

Distinguished landscape architects of the Bay Area have turned the site of the show into a perfect garden setting, utilizing the charm of water in California gardens.

IN ANSWER TO MANY inquiries, Mrs. John Ellis, president if Outdoor Art Shows, which is sponsoring the sixth annual art and garden show, announced that members may bring guests to the preview party by paying a $2 guest fee per couple. This courtesy should be restricted to out-of-town guests, house guests or prospective members, Mrs. Ellis explained.

Besides the galaxy of exhibits, members and guests will be entertained at the preview by madrigal singers from the Golden Hind Lemonade Opera Company of Berkeley. Wine punch will be served and a bar will be available.

Officers of the board of directors of Outdoor Art Shows will form a rereiving line at the party. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Harold Powell of Lafayette and Mrs. Arthur Wagstaff of Walnut Creek,

A group of pretty sub-debs with Miss Anne Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Howard of Walnut Creek, in charge, will circulate among the guests, bearing potables.

Additiional junior hostesses comprise Derryl DeGuire, Georgia Brum, Betty Johnson and Pat Dougherty.

Members whose annual dues of $5 per year have been received prior to September 17 are eligible to attend the show preview party, Mrs. Ellis said. Those desiring to join Outdoor Art Shows or to renew their memberships may do so by contacting membership chairman Mrs. James McGeehonJr., 2460 Warren Road, Walnut Creek, YE 4-4772.

IN ADDITION TO the art and garden show preview, membership in Outdoor Art Shows entitles holders to "meet the artist" parties held each month at the Artists' Market in conjunction with new shows there. Classes in painting for children and classes for adults are available at the Artists' Market.

As another activity of Outdoor Art Shows, the Artists Market is open daily except Sundays and Mondays, staffed by volunteers and offering artists' works in all media for sale. Portraits by established artists are available, and paintings may be rented from the gallery for a nominal fee.

PATTER ON THE PARTY LINE

By PATRICIA JELTON

YOU KIDS TAKEN A STAND ON Dinosaur National Monument yet? We were definitely stalemated in the mixed up emotions department between Barney De Voto and Pete Salinger's smooth semantics and Secretary McKay's sturdy convictions, until we attended a most interesting party at Dr. Bill and Katy Ornduff's the other evening.

They spent a few weeks this summer looking the place over for themselves, and what they did was to arrange for about 100 of their pals to share share their experiences with them in a vicarious way.

Leather shorts, Tyrolean hat and tin cup!

First your invitation came in the form of identical instructions sent to the Ornduffs to aid in preparation for their trip (with the addition of lively embellishments by said O's).

These were taken quite literally by the guests who arrived in their various conceptions of proper Sierra Club hiking gear, and armed with tin cups in which refreshments were served. These vessels likewise held the first course of supper which was devine onion soup.

Th entire gourmet style supper was a replica of one served on the trip prepared from dehydrated ingredients. You wouldn't have believed it. Realism even carried into galley duty with each guest dunking his own utensils in the community suds.

Following dinner came colored movies of the trip, the handiwork of both the Ornduffs and the Sierra Club. One prediction we will make for sure, a great many of the local kamainaas will be making the trip next year.

THE TOUR OF THE very interesting formations is made by floating down the Green River for six days, camping beside the river in the evenings. The spectacular scenery, historical treasures, and general excitement and adventure of the prospect are overwhelming.

Participants ranged in age from 4 to 70; practically no preparation is necessary, if you're reasonably hale, don't mind being away from the telephone for a week, or sleeping on the ground, you're in.

You can always have another party later.

What happens when you toss a little soiree for a couple of newlyweds, and the guests of honor don't show?

Well, if you have as gay and congenial a group as Don and Barbara Lawrie did on Friday evening, they carry on until all hours with no apparent strain, sorry as they were not to greet Bobby's sister Pat with new bridegroom John Norris who were unable to make it down from Tahoe sojourn.

Comparing vacation notes and summer tans were Audrey and Kermie Lincoln, Fran and Dr. Dick Dawson, Ann and Ted Sawyer, Eleanor and Ramsay Underwood, Vivian and Pierce Milton, Gene and Fred Von Guenthner, Julie and Don Allen, and Andy Robertson who preceeded Barbara and the youngsters home from summerlong visit in east with grandparents.

Relished lively story of Barb's three hour lay-over in Chicago during which she elected to relax in Pump Room rather than trot through museums.

Her companions consisting of her four and one half children accompanied by one skunk in cage, found the atmosphere rather formal and confining for their tastes, and things, well, sort of ended up with the skunk loose in the lobby, the police in pursuit, and if you must know, probably the wildest commotion the Pump Room has had since it was built.

When the troops had finally got things under control and were marshalling all into taxi (including Andrew who had somehow managed to get lost, to his intense delight), and elderly dowager who had been in on the show from the beginning stepped up to Barbara and inquired solicitiously, "Dear, what made you feel you needed the skunk, too?"

It was just one busy, busy weekend

On Saturday evening, everyone who wasn't at Orinda Country Club's Show Boat party was at the Starlinght Soiree at the E. E. Rowlands in Walnut Creek sponsored by the Walnut Branch of Children's Hospital, imbiding generous potables dispensed by reliable husbands, and dining on barbecued beef prepared by Larry Blake.

We were greeted with mirth on all sides because our dear friend and pal, Matt Connolly (you know Matt?) had got there first with his version of the story.

The way we look at it, a thing like this could happen to anyone. It really started the night before when the Lincolns dropped us off. As they passed through the kitchen, Audrey remarked rather mundanely, "I think your stove just meowed."

Well, at three o'clock in the morning, you don't get too earnest about these things, so we shut all the doors and made for the downey.

Next morning, steeled with the prospect of a brand new day, we sailed into the kitchen only to have our wind spilled out by a series of cat calls from the mechanism.

Upon checking the current litter of furry ones in the store room, sure enough where there had been five, there were now but four.

Just like 'do it yourself' week

Armed with screw drivers, bobby pins, and beer openers, we made futile atempts to dismember stove, whereupon father flung himself out the door with admonition that this sort of thing was included on the agenda of the maintenance engineer.

After a few rebuffs, we eventually took our story to the Appliance Center, where, we had been informed, that a man named George was kept on tap for emergencies which was what we figured we had.

Well, it turned out that George and Matt spent the entire day dissecting stove into little pieces with frequent diversions such as assorted juveniles wandering in and out making peculiar requests, and the screaming of the parrot, who at this point had taken up meowing like a cat.

There was most definitely no cat in the stove, and George was dead set on breaking our story of the diminished kittens with implications such as, "Now lady, how many cats did you think you had to start with?" When suddenly, loud and clear for all to hear, came "Meow!"

WELL, ALL RIGHT, so it was in the flue and all they had to do was reach down the chimney — voila — pussy cat.

And so it took far into the night to reassemble stove, and on the way out heard the gentlement inquire of Eric Tengsted, who was doing a chore for us, why he was digging that deep hole in the back yard which looked suspiciously like a grave.

"MRS. JELTON'S GOING TO bury a fish," says he.

And we are, we really are. Tomorrow night — a Fish Bake — proceeds to Orinda Branch of Children's Hospital.

If you'd like to come, we'd love to have you. Call Shirley Jurs, AT 3-3531.

'Showboat' Draws Over 550 to Club

One of the most gala events of the fall season took place last Saturday night when Orinda Country Club had its Showboat Dance.

With flags flying, two smokestacks and gangplanks, the pool house was converted into a real Showboat, surrounded with crates bearing labels, "Natchez," "New Orleans" and "Belle of Dixie."

To complete the effort a tremendous bale of cotton weighing 500 pounds was sitting by the dock.

OVER 550 GUESTS and members attended with several cocktail parties preceeding the event. Among those hosting parties were the John Athansons of Lafayette with 40 at their home. The Athansons were also the dance chairmen and did a wonderful job.

Other cocktail parties included those of the Truman Floyds of Orinda who celebrated a wedding anniversary the same evening. The Harry Olipahants of Orinda, had a gathering as well as the Jack Scammels of Orinda and the Richard Bliesners of Walnut Creek.

SEVERAL NO HOST groups met for refrshments right at the pool. Among theme were the George Parkers, Jack Sexons, Harry Martins, Ted Newmans, Carlton Ranks, Hugh MacIntyres, Edward Maloneys and John Stoffels.

Highlight of the evening was the acquacade performed by the daughters of club members. These girls had been practicing their routine for two months under the direction of Gil Callies and gave a most professional performance.

All in all, when the evening drew to a conclusion everyone was most reluctant to leave for it was one of the most successful parties held at the club.

Tiny's Hut Cops Softball Pennant By Beating Rick's

Tiny's Hut, under the guidance of Les Lloyd, copped the 1954 pennant of the Walnut Creek Softball League when it won a thrilling 6-5 decision over Rick's in the third and deciding game of a 2 out of 3 series.

Rick's, winner of the first half of league play, and Tiny's, winner of the second half, had split the first two games, Rick's winning 6-1 in the first and Tiny's 4-0 in the second.

The third game, played under the lights of Walnut Creek Park, found the two clubs giving the fans a run for their money all the way in a game that wasn't decided until the final out.

THE GAME WAS played on a 9-inning basis instead of the usual seven, in view of the championship status.

In the game, played September 9, Rick's, up in the first half of the first, scored two runs on two hits and an error, with Jim Teichera's triple the big blow of the inning.

Tiny's came back in their turn at the plate when they turned a hit and an error into two runs.

TINY'S TOOK a 3-2 lead in the second when Johnny Stockton, on via an error by shortstop Johnny Nourse, was sacrificed to second by Pete Grammone and came home on a single by catcher Jim Bankhead.

It was really a merry-go-round in the fifth, when Rick's scored 3 runs, going out in front 5-3, but the picture changed quickly when Tiny's scored 3 on their own, with the big blow coming off the bat of Earl Eigard when, with two down, he rapped a home run to right field to score Dick Gordon ahead of him. Palmer had scored earlier from third on Frank Freitas' bunt and Gordon was on via the walk route.

That made it 6-5, in favor of Tiny's, and that's the way it ended.

RICK'S ONLY chance came in the top of the ninth when Teichera led off with a single and, on a steal, Catcher Bankhead threw the ball into center field. Teichera headed for third while Centerfielder Eigard scooped up the ball and threw it in.

The decisive play came when First baseman Gordon crossed over, took the throw and fired to third. Teicheira had rounded the plate and was trapped off base and tagged out as he tried to scramble back to safety.

IT WAS THE death knoll for Rick's, as Gene Bell struck out the next batter and Bob Hinkson was out No. 3 on a ground ball, pitcher to first.

Trophies were presented to Tiny's Hut, and the runner-up, Rick's, following the game, as well as to the league's top hitters.

The winner in the men's division was Dale Halbert with a nifty .406, while Pat Churchill copped the gals' top honor wit ha standout .426 average.

Prep Grid Play Begins Today

Knights Tackle Swett's Indians This Afternoon

Scene of action is the Las Lomas athletic calendar of the Las Lomas Knights, who get their first taste of varsity competition when they host the John Swett Indians in a game starting at 3:30 p.m.

This afternoon is a big day on the gridiron.

Coach George Deklotz is in his second year as mentor of the Knights and, in view of his first year record, the Knights promise to give a good account of themselves during the 1954 season.

LAST SEASON, as a J.V. team, they came through with six wins, a tie and one loss.

The tie was with the Pittsburg Pirates, in which the Knights got nary a break throughout the game.

The loss was a 13-6 one at the hands of the Acalanes Babes, who went on to win the championship.

THE LAS LOMAS eleven's biggest problem appears to be lack of depth, and, while the first eleven appears O.K., injuries to key men could slow the club down in a sudden fashion, as replacements are not too plentiful.

The line standouts appear to be Arne Lundquist and Arnold Lahde, while in the backfield speed and ability are combined in both Rick Ostrom and Bob Kinyon, who figure to rip off plenty of yardage.

John Swett comes with a heavy club and a good number of veterans.

On paper the game appears to be pretty much of a tossup.

The big question is: Can Swett cope with the Knights' speed?

Rams Ready for Opener Tonight Against Bulldogs

"Chafing at the bit and eager for the opening kickoff" is the way Coach Hall Briggs of the Pleasant Hill Rams sums up the grid situation prior to the opening kickoff tonight against the Alhambra Bulldogs.

The game, to be played under the lights of the Martinez field, finds the Rams fielding a starting eleven composed of 10 seniors and a lone junior, with all but one spot definitely decided upon, and that decision to be between two seniors.

The club, on the whole, is on the light side, but features a speedy, wide-open attack, with flankers and split ends the order of the day, to make up for the lack of weight.

ONE OF THE BRIGHT lights has been the passing of Quarterback Dick Egan, who tosses from the port side. The game could well be a throwing contest between Egan and Charlie Tourville, Alhambra's pride and joy, who, in addition to being a top runner, throws a good pass.

The Ram backfield has remained without changes as Calvin Moore and Jim McDermott pair up in the halfback spots, with Fullback Jim McMillan rounding out the quartet.

McMillan is the lone junior, all others being fourth year men.

THE GAME marks the first play of Pleasant Hill High School in varsity football, and they are keen to make it a winning debut.

They have their hands full, however, as Coach Jim Coulter has 15 lettermen on hand and figures to have his best club in many a moon.

200 Fans from This Area Pay Homage To Oaks' Star Hurler Don Ferrarese

By ERWIN MATTSON

DON FERRARESE NIGHT, held at the Oakland ball park last Friday night, was a success, with a good number of local fans on hand despite more outside competition than would normally be expected.

The date, picked better than a month in advance, was a random choice. Later it turned out that both Las Lomas and Acalanes High Schools had dances on tap, KOVR television decided to telecast the 49er-Ram game, the merchants in Lafayette and Walnut Creek stayed open until 9:00 and, to top it all, the hardtop races gave away free tickets.

Despite all this, approximately 200 were on hand to honor Don, all of which attests to his popularity.

DON, MODEST AS ever, took his bow at home plate, with Mel Nielsen, chairman of the event, doing the honors.

Yours truly had the honor of presenting Don with his gifts, which consisted of coin of the realm and a number of gifts from many merchants in this area.

It was a beautiful night at the park and, although Don didn't show in the ball game, everyone had a good time watching an interesting game and giving the men in black "the works." It was a great night for a great guy!

THE PREP FOOTBALL season is here today and the preps are tugging at the leash, ready to go.

Long and arduous drills are behind them. Rehearsals are over and it's time for the play to go on.

Coaches and players are all wondering how they will go. Game time will find thousands on hand to witness what is fast becoming America's National game.

ONE OF THE DIFFICULT jobs that has faced coaches has been that of squad selection.

Cutting squads is an unpleasant task.

This year it was necessary to cut a number of senior boys from the varsity squad. In practically every instance it was the boy's first year out and it was too much for him to compete with players who are in their third or fourth season.

Football is a rough "rock and sock 'em" game which entails lots of skill and hours and hours of practice and detail coaching.

Size has little to do with the game. Some of the best backs Acalanes has every had have been under 130 pounds. They had desire plus skill.

It is no more fair to pit an inexperienced boy against a veteran in football than it is to take a fighter with two fights behind him and match him with one with 40 fights or a backlog of experience.

In 24 years of coaching I have known only one player who came out in his senior year and made first string. He was Don Ryan of Walnut Creek, who was a natural and turned out to be one of the county's best at a guard spot.

Competition for positions is keen, and it is very difficult to make the grade without previous experience.

Those who want to be athletes shoud start in their frosh year.

In football a separate squad is kept and the boys in it are not moved up to competition until they are deemed ready by the coaches.

It is here that the foundation is laid and the skills are acquired.

A LARGE FROSH turnout this year under Coach Tom Stamper bodes well for the future. Stamper claims one of the best frosh teams yet, which makes the Don junior varsity and varsity coaches look ahead with optimism.

Seniors can't play on J.V. teams, by rule regulation. Others can be moved to lower classification for experience.

Thus cuts become an unpleasant phase of coaching. It's hard to make judgments, and, being human, coaches do make mistakes.

Boys often are disappointed and aren't much if they aren't disappointed.

Coaches are often disappointed, too — but who in life isn't?

Vikings Oppose Orange Coast

East Contra Costa Junior College's football team plays its opening game of the season against Orange Coast College of Costa Mesa at 8 tomorrow night at Mt. Diablo High School field in Concord.

"Storm in a T-pot" is the way Viking Head Coach Hal Buffa describes the activity of the fastest-moving backfield ECCJC has turned out since former Viking quarterback Tommy Kramer moved over the hill to Berkeley. Operating along the lines of the University of Oklahoma's split-T formation, Buffa has been running off mental time-trials with his quarterbacks all week.

Under he Oklahoma system, the quarterback has to be able to do more than pass the pigskin along like a hot potato and if he isn't good as a fast-breaking runner, as Buffa puts it, he's "caught dead."

To date the Vikes have fielded three good quarterbacks, and Buffa is still undecided about his field general for the Orange Coast opener. Former Pittsburg High School star Ben Camera has the weight and is good on defense; Mav McKean, former Diablo High star, is the fastest; while Warren Baker, another former Pittsburg player, is a good ball handler and is moving fast as a passer.

Dons, Piedmont Play Tonight in Gridiron Opener

The Acalanes Dons, long on desire and short on experience, face the Piedmont Highlanders under the lights of Acalanes Memorial Field tonight, with kickoff time slated for 8 p.m. sharp.

The game will mark the opening of the 1954 grid season and is the first of three practice games.

Piedmont, with a veteran club, has a lineup boasting eight starters from last season, while the Dons have but one, and that in Dennis Busby, a bruising 195-pound fullback who appears headed for a great season.

The Dons' starting lineup consists of a backfield with three seniors and a junior.

Barrett and Wahl are speedburners, and each is capable of going all the way once he gets in the clear.

Gary Williamson, a transfer from Las Lomas, has been shifted from center to tackle and gets the call in the starting lineup, along with Eric McKinley at the other tackle. In the guard slots it's Bill Rupley and Jon Palmer, with Andy Fadelli at center.

ACALANES COACHES Erwin Mattson and Charles Eaton plan on using a host of players in order to find out as much as possible about as many players as possible under game conditions.

The Dons will be handicapped in the kicking department, due to the loss of John Conley, who is out with an injured shoulder.

Red Jones, the next best booter, is on the sidelines, having reported late for practice. The kicking will fall to McDonald and Barrett.

Coach Bob Muenter of Piedmont claims one of his best squads yet and promises an aerial attack second to none.

THE DONS' PLAYED the Highlanders down to the wire last season, only to drop the decision 13-6 when Monte Upshaw, brilliant Piedmont star of last year, intercepted a pass and rambled 35 yards to mark the difference.

Monte is gone via the graduation route, and only game time will tell how much he will be missed.

The Dons are an untested eleven but, if practice sessions are any indication, they will be up for this one and fans should be in for a night of top-flight prep ball, 1954 style, which means a wide-open game, with emphasis on scoring.

County Junior College Enrollment Up 45%

A 45 per cent enrollment increase for the two Contra Costa Junior Colleges was announced today by Superintendent Drummond J. McCunn.

Sewer Board Candidates Have Their Say

Voters in the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District will elect two directors for 4-year terms Monday.

Candidates are Campbell MacPhail of Lafayette, incumbent who was appointed in May to succeed Elliott Johnson, who resigned; M. H. Stanley of Lafayette, incumbent who was appointed in December, 1952, to take the place of William Malott, who resigned; Raymond W. Fisher Jr. of Orinda and Richard J. Mitchell of Pleasant Hill.

The SUN asked each candidate "What do you think can be done to improve the Sanitary District?" Here are their answers.

RAYMOND W. FISHER JR.

CAMPBELL MacPHAIL

Raymond Fisher

Get a plan—and tell the people. A plan to answer today's problems and build toward the district's ultimate needs.

No plan exists now; no provision has been made to get one.

Every successful organization, public or private, uses a master plan in some form to guide its policies and chart its future. An industrial concern plans its facilities for expansion; its financing to meet current needs and future requirements.

To an even greater degree, it is utility practice to plan for years ahead while serving immediate demands. These things can be done only if the owners and users are told about them and provide the means to do them.

THE DISTRICT is in trouble because these principles are not being applied. As long as there is not a defined policy, the district will operate in a stop-gap manner.

As a result, unfortunate commitments are made on an emergency basis, without study, and problems continue without correction.

Recently a thousand dollars was spent for a report that was termed a "disappointment." A report can only be disappointing if there is no understanding of what is required when the work is authorized or if the questions asked are not answered, in which case it should not be paid for.

NOW IT IS PROPOSED to spend $60,000 for engineering on both ends of the system, with the "understanding" that "they will investigate the middle."

Either the district is paying for and will get a thorough investigation of both ends and the middle, or it is paying for and will get only detail design at both ends.

At this same meeting the board was asked to allocate $60,000 for engineering, the county sanitation director appealed for correction of sewage overflow into the San Pablo Reservoir. Two years ago this was an emergency, and a makeshift chlorinator was installed. It is still an emergency.

THE DISTRICT'S FINANCING is in a similar state. Money is needed for improvements, extensions and corrections. The bond issue failed because the voters were not informed and lacked confidence that sufficient thought had gone into it—no policy had been stated. The use tax is not an answer.

Many new problems will arise and old ones will reappear. The area will continue to grow, and it will be necessary to extend service and provide greater assurance against failures. As existing facilities depreciate, maintenance requirements will increase.

These problems cannot be met with emergency planning and stop-gap financing. As long as no specific policy exists the board will be hamstrung with emergency measures and the district's staff will devote its time to keeping its head above water.

A MASTER PLAN can be achieved and financed when:

1. The board establishes a policy. If it needs information it must hire experts or instruct its staff to assemble it.

2. The board informs the people of that policy and the cost of fulfilling it—and "sells" it if necessary.

Campbell MacPhail

Basic objectives of the Sanitary District are: (1) Maintenance of the sewerage and disposal system; (2) operating efficiently and within a realistic tax rate; (3) planning for the future needs of the district; (4) determination as to how revenue for future expansion of the facility may be obtained; (5) refunding its present bonded indebtedness.

Basically these five points bear a resemblance to any well-run private enterprise. I am of the opinion that basically the district is operated in the same manner as many well-run businesses.

In looking back over the past months, I have come to the conclusion that there is nothing seriously wrong with the Sanitary District except GROWTH. Every public and private enterprise has had the same trouble. But without growth where would we be and what would happen to private enterprise in this area?

If the district's connected population had remained at what it was in 1950 and there was positive information that the district's population would remain static, our Sanitary District would have few problems.

HOWEVER, the district's population has not been static. We haven't reached the population saturation point yet; that point will be years in coming.

The Central Contra Costa Sanitary District must have prepared a COMPREHENSIVE SEWER PLAN to take care of the great area of Central Contra Costa. The people of the present Sanitary District should expect and demand a comprehensive plan.

Certainly, we must not allow these 30,000 acres that comprise the present district to be sewered in a piecemeal fashion. We have experienced too much piecemeal planning from the county in regard to land use.

AS THE LAND around the present district boundary is subdivided, we must be prepared to take care of the sewage generated by those additional thousands. The present system must be put in condition to accommodate growth within and outside the present district.

A comprehensive sewer plan is a basic requirement for the future development of this area. The Sanitary District has prepared such a plan. This plan provides for the correction of certain portions of the system to care for the predictable growth of the area.

The district board has recently engaged the firm of Brown and Caldwell to prepare engineering plans for the expansion of the treatment plant. When built with bond issue money, this will provide for an increment of 45,000 connected population.

In addition, engineering designs for the Orinda and Moraga facilities will be prepared.

WITH THE INCREASE in the tax rate to the maximum of 60 cents, the board plans to use that money to correct a condition that is aggravating the East Bay Municipal Utility District, the County Health Department and the State Water Pollution Board.

However, with the correction of that problem, another will be aggravated downstream and at the treatment plant. Again we may sewage not being treated due to the limited capacity of certain lines in Lafayette and Pleasant Hill and at the treatment plant proper.

I am of the opinion that only a general obligation bond issue will correct the inadequacies in the present system and provide that capacity for future growth of the area. A bond issue is the only economical and equitable method available to us. A bond issue will provide an adequate system for now and the foreseeable future.

IT HAS BEEN suggested that the Sanitary District has been aloof to the public's attitude. I don't believe that this is the case. I know that each of the present members of the board has religiously given of his time to talk to many organized groups and individuals.

In my own case, I have sought out groups and individuals in an attempt to obtain their opinions as to what they expect from the district. In addition, I have explained what I believe the district should be doing.

The district board has encouraged its administrative staff to accept speaking engagements.

IT IS ALWAYS difficult to get information to the public; for one reason, not too many people are interested except when there is a very controversial issue. Not enough people care.

I'm not sure how to go about acquainting the public with the Sanitary District, but this I know—that if all of us had some knowledge of the district's facility, the district's problems would be lessened.

Richard Mitchell

It has become obvious that there is still room for a great deal of improvement in Central Contra Costa Sanitary District functions. For discussion purposes I would like to classify these functions into the following categories.

1. Financial planning.
2. Engineering planning.
3. Policy and cooperation with county flood control, health and planning agencies.
4. Public relations.

IN ORDER TO PROPERLY finance required expansion programs the district must establish a long-range financial program. The district cannot expect to obtain authority for additional large bonded indebtedness every 5 to 10 years.

It must set aside part of the monies required for capital expenditures each year so that when expansion is needed, bonding costs will be more reasonable to the over-taxed pocketbook of the taxpayer.

Such a program will, in the long run, save the taxpayer money by eliminating much of the costs of interest on debt, and it will keep the district out of trouble in emergencies.

IN CLOSE HARMONY with financial planning must be a sound engineering plan — projected to the ultimate full development of land uses within the Walnut Creek and Orinda-Moraga watersheds.

Lack of this planning was one of the main factors in the defeat of the recent bond issue.

The public must know that improvements and expansion are needed, and that those proposed are based on thorough study for the lowest cost and best design.

CLOSE COOPERATION and policy agreements with county flood control agencies can be of great benefit to the district.

Excessive infiltration of storm waters into sanitary sewers and breaking of sewer lines due to slides has added tremendously to district costs for adequate sewers and treatment plant capacity.

Properly coordinated flood control and sanitation facilities can benefit the district by reducing overloading of sewers during heavy rains.

THE SANITARY DISTRICT is now working on essentially a day-to-day basis in its decisions for providing adequate sewers in each local area.

A formal statement of policy for each area by review of county health department and planning department recommendations would assure properly designed sewers. Replacement and paralleling of inadequate lines would be reduced to a minimum. It would also clarify the Sanitary District's position regarding the status of septic tank areas.

RICHARD J. MITCHELL

PUBLIC RELATIONS has obviously been one of the district's weakest points. A well planned and well publicized program of district expansion, with an explanation of the reasons and theory behind the expansion, can do much to establish favorable public opinion.

The Board of Directors must listen and act to the best interests of the people of the district when public leaders and citizens voice constructive criticism of board policy.

THE DISTRICT BOARD itself can operate with greater efficiency by refraining from discussion of policy matters on each new proposed sewer connection.

Organization within the board to delegate responsibility for overseeing the financial, engineering, coordination and public relation problems can distribute the capabilities of board members to best advantage.

more than 30 years, I am familiar with the tax problems and other problems of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District.

I am well versed in public subdivision laws covering our tax structures. I feel that proper planning and the expenditure of sufficient time by the directors can result in the saving of considerable cost for the taxpayer.

My motto has always been "Never forget the taxpayer." I've always said that problems are very easy when you have plenty of money to spend—but, after all, money advanced to a district must be paid back.

AT THE TIME the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District was formed the system was built at the limit of the bonded indebtedness of the district.

At that time there were no means of building up a sinking or construction fund by direct taxation over and above operating costs.

Raising of the tax limit this year by law makes it possible to set up this fund.

THE ENGINEERING studies to be prepared by the firm of Brown and Caldwell should provide proper guidance. Decision to have these studies conducted was a wise one and will help assure that the necessary money will be spent properly on corrective and expansion measures.

When proper plans are forthcoming, the people will be behind us in a bond issue. A bond issue is the equitable method of meeting much of the costs of a development program; taxpayers who come into the district in the future will help pay for improvements, as will those now in the district.

I feel we have made considerable headway this year.

WITH PROPER PLANNING and work, much can be accomplished from the direct tax for this coming year.

The full backing and confidence of the people of the district are an important factor in any successful carrying through of a program.

We have a very good engineer at the head of the district operations. He has the support of a good organization under him.

BEING RETIRED, I can, as a director, spend any amount of time I feel necessary in furthering the district program.

Since my appointment to the board a year and a half ago I have devoted considerable time to study of Sanitary District problems.

I will continue to do so, and I hope the voters see fit to elect me Monday.

Peter Howard to Lead Fund Drive

Peter Howard of Walnut Creek has been named chairman of an Alameda campaign to raise funds for the support of Republican candidates in the November elections.

What They Say . . .

What Was Your Nicest Experience?

With twinges of fall in the air, it is only fitting that remembrances of a fine summer should come to mind.

Most people are home from their vacations, the children are back in school and household life has returned to normal.

So considering this, The SUN this week called residents to ask them, "What was your most pleasant experience of the summer?"

And here is what they say, including one resident who answered in verse:

"MY TRIP TO LAS VEGAS, said Mrs. Donald H. Geyer, 1041 Dolores Drive, Lafayette. "We stayed in fabulous hotels and lost some money. It was the first time we'd been there."

"I think it was being a counselor for the Bluebirds at their day camp in Redwood Regional Park," said Mrs. David I. Gilbert, 75 Solana Drive, Lafayette. "'I enjoy seeing children having fun, and they certainly had it, especially the night they all dressed up as Mother Goose characters."

Mrs. F. A. Gillespie, 1 Crane Court, Orinda, said, "Well, we're putting up an addition to our house and I think that whole project is the most pleasant experience of the summer for me. We're converting the garage into a family room.

"It's wonderful if you have children coming into the teen-age group."

You asked for my experience
Most enjoyable
And Memorable
I should describe a Honolulu junket
Or a hemispheric yacht trip to Nantucket
Or Macao on an ancient Chinese
Junk. It
Would be more exciting, if no more erie
Than the successful ascent to the gallery at the Geary.

"I guess vacation was," said Mrs. R. F. Duncan of 321 Gladys Drive, Pleasant Hill.

"It was holding my six-months old grandson on my lap all summer up in the mountains," replied Mrs. Irma Huovinen of 1032 Pleasant Valley Drive, Pleasant Hill. "It's the pleasantest thing I could think of," she added.

"I THINK THE pleasantest thing that happened to us as that we were able to get a two-day vacation. And it was a very pleasant two days," said Mrs. Henry Kunter of 91 Carolyn Court, Walnut Creek.

"I think it was just being out here in this wonderful Walnut Creek area," replied Ellis E. Richard of 250 Stevens Drive, Walnut Creek.

Jehovah Group Planning Confab

The Contra Costa County Fairgrounds will be the site of a 3-day "Circuit Assembly" of Jehovah's witnesses next Friday and September 25 and 26, it was annuonced yesterday by J. E. Frank, presiding minister of the congregation at Pittsburg.

The meeting is expected to attract ministers and evangelists of the religious group from throughout Contra Costa and neighboring counties.

Here Are Thumbnail Sketches of Four Candidates for Sewer District Board

Here are brief skeches of the four candidates for two directorships of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District in next Monday's election.

CAMPBELL MacPHAIL—His full name is Lawrence Campbell MacPhail, but he's generally known as Campbell MacPhail except in the U.S. Navy, by whom he is employed at the Naval Supply Depot in Oakland as supervisor, Administrative and Planning Division, Ordnance Supply Depot.

He is 38 and lives at 3244 Camino Colorados, Lafayette. He and his family have lived in Lafayette three and a half years. The family consists of Mr. and Mrs. MacPhail and their son, Alec, in kindergarten at Burton School. There's also Skip, a Spaniel dog.

MacPhail has been director of the Lafayette Improvement Association since September, 1952. He is a member of the program committee of the Lafayette Citizens' Education Committe; he aided in organization of the Education Committee. In 1953 he was secretary of the Citizens Advisory Committee for the Sanitary District. He was treasurer of the St. Mary's Orchards Improvement Association, which he helped organize.

He was appointed to the Sanitary District board last May.

M. H. STANLEY—A pioneer resident, the 65-year-old M. H. Stanley moved to Lafayette over 30 years ago. He was born in San Diego, where his father was a blacksmith. "I was raised in the village blacksmith shop," Stanley humorously recalls. He attended grammar schools in San Diego and Mission San Jose and grammar and high schools in Oakland, where he took a special course in architecural drawing and general construction.

He has been in the lumber and milling business most of his life. During World War II he did contracting work for the U.S. Army Engineers and the U.S. Navy. He was in the Army in World War I. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley raised their two daughters and three sons here.

Stanley was a Lafayette School District trustee for 24 years. He was ont of the organizers of the Acalanes High School District, of which he is still a trustee; he has served on the high school district board 14 years.

He was appointed to the Sanitary District board in December, 1952. Other boards on which he serves, and his length of service on them, the those of the Lafayette Fire District, 20 years; Lafayette County Water District, 19 years, and Pleasant Hill County Water District, 14 years.

Stanley was active on the first committee to get the Broadway Tunnel built.

He lives at 1200 Martino Lane, Lafayette, and is retired.

RAYMOND W. FISHER JR. — Fisher, a registerer civil engineer, is employed by Kaiser Engineers in Oakland. He has had 14 years' professional experience, most of them in sanitary work.

He lives at 90 Meadow View Road, Orinda, with his wife and two daughters, Kathleen and Laurie, and, he says, "a dog that sings and a cat that does not catch gophers."

Fisher is 35. He is a graduate of the University of California.

RICHARD J. MITCHELL—Mitchell, 35, is a registered chemical engineer employed by California Research Corporation in Richmond. He points out he is "familiar with the economics of engineering and process equipment expansion such as that which now faces the Sanitary District."

He is chairman of the planning and zoning committee of the Pleasant Hill Civic Council and a director of the Planning League of Contra Costa County, on the board of which he represents the Pleasant Hill Civic Council. He is a past president and director of the Gregory Gardens Improvement Club and has been active on citizens' committees for improvement of flood control, planning and zoning, and sanitation for Pleasant Hill.

Mtichell lives with his wife and 3½-year-old daughter Carol, at 1672 Mary Drive, Gregory Gardens. He was born in Cleveland, received his Bachelor's degree in Chemical Engineering and his Master of Science degree (Chemical Engineering) at Ohio State University in 1940 and 1941 and a Mechanical Engineer graduate degree at the University of California in 1946.

He had almost five years' active military duty, including the World War II period. He was with the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, was a pilot, flying instructor and flight commander in the U.S. Air Force and was a design and development officer with the Air Materiel Command, U.S. Air Force.

Mitchell has also been head of the rocket propellant unit of the Power Plant Laboratory, Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Dayton, Ohio, and pilot plant supervisor, chemical process development, for Merck and Company, Rahway, N.J.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

Almost since the very inception of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District it has been involved in disputes and controversies which, on more than one occasion, have shaken the confidence of the citizens in the ability of the district to serve adequately the needs of this growing area.

Two years ago the citizens here voted to strengthen the district's board, with the result that progress has been made toward coping with the serious problems facing the district and its people.

Now, with another board election scheduled for Monday, the voters must determine how the board of the Sanitary District may be further strengthened.

To do this it is necessary to elect the most able candidates.

WHAT ARE THE important qualifications which the successful candidates should possess? They are at least three in number:

1. Inasmuch as the board members serve without salary, the candidate should have a proved record of voluntary community service.

2. He should have demonstrated a high level of administrative competence.

3. If possible, he should have a comprehensive knowledge of the district's operations.

FORTUNATELY, at least one of the four candidates meets all of these qualifications. Campbell MacPhail, currently a member of the board, has served this area long and well.

A partial list of his public services includes experience as a board member of the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation, the Lafayette Improvement Association and the St. Mary's Orchards Improvement Association.

He was the Lafayette Improvement Association's representative to the Sanitary District, as well as a member of the areawide Citizens Advisory Committee to the Sanitary District. In addition, he served as secretary of that committee.

IN MAY of this year he was selected to fill the vacancy on the Sanitary District board created by the resignation of Elliott Johnson, a charter member of the board.

As a board member MacPhail clearly demonstrated his administrative ability.

MacPHAIL HAS rendered outstanding service to the area and thereby has earned a deep vote of confidence from all of us.

Let us deliver that well-deserved vote of confidence to MacPhail by reelecting him to the board of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District Monday.

We cannot afford to lose the ability and knowledge which MacPhail brings to the board!
